

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, as a result of an extensive extraordinary hardship resulting from the heavy snows and blizzard conditions in South Dakota during the months of December and January in those areas of South Dakota seriously affected thereby; and,

WHEREAS, an immediate danger and threat to the life and property of the residents in the above areas exists; and,

WHEREAS, to prevent a loss of life and public and private property as a result of present conditions:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK L. FARRAR, Governor of the State of South Dakota, under the powers granted in the State Civil Defense Law, do hereby proclaim and declare these portions of the State of South Dakota as EMERGENCY AREAS.

IT IS FURTHER DECLARED that the designation of these areas as EMERGENCY AREAS will allow local government executives to coordinate the rendering of emergency assistance to the residents within their areas where there is danger to the life and property of the residents in the above areas.

IT IS FURTHER DECLARED that the designation of these EMERGENCY AREAS will authorize the State of South Dakota to render assistance to local units of government in support of emergency operations and the activation of "Plan Bull Dozer" for utilization of political subdivisions in handling emergencies.

IT IS FURTHER DECLARED that local units of government will make the maximum utilization of local resources in handling emergency requests and residents in the above areas should limit their requests to emergency situations in order to conserve limited resources available.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 28th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-nine.
